Brief News Notes—People at Home and Abroad.

MONTEREY, FRIDAY SEP. 24, 1920

Born to Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Wagner, Sunday, Sept. 19, a son.

W. F. Jones and Roy Nicely are attending the Covington fair.

J. F. McNulty is attending a conference of Red Cross workers in session this week in Roanoke.

J. W. Boyer, of Woodstock, spent a few days in Monterey, arriving last Friday.

Arthur Bird, who is in business at Logan, W. Va., came to his Valley Center home latter part of last week for a short vacation.

Mrs. Susan Crummett, of Valley Center, is spending some time with Misses Mabel and Ruth Doyle in their new home near Monterey.

Rev. and Mrs. L. L. Lowance passed through Monterey Tuesday evening on their way to the latter's old home near Valley Center.

Mrs. Emma Wilson has decided to spend the winter in Monterey and will occupy the house recently vacated by Mrs. A. B. Warwick, on North Spruce street.

Rev. R. D. McNeer has changed his preaching hour for next Sunday from 2:30 p. m. to 11:00 a. m.

John R. Clegg and two little daughters, Misses Gladys and Earlet, of Bath, were in Monterey Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wallace, of Staunton, are this week moving back to Highland. We accord them a hearty welcome.

Misses Celia Swecker and Reba Kramer, Crabbottom young ladies, have resumed their studies at the State Normal, Harrisonburg, going out on Tuesday.

Misses Elizabeth Whitelaw and Lola Hiner, the latter of the Doe Hill section, left during the week for Lynchburg to attend R. M. W. C.

S. H. Hiner and family, of Durbin, W. Va., returned to Monterey Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ashby and child, of Weston, W. Va., stopped for a day with Mrs. Robt. Whitelaw, on their way to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman at McDowell.

Our customers who have cement bags, will please bring them in for rebate credit. Highland Mer. Co.

Misses Lena May and Edna Campbell, of Mill Gap, and Irene Hevener, of Hightown, are attending a bible training school in Richmond.

The ladies of the Vanderpool Methodist church will hold a lawn party at the church, Saturday Sept. 25th, at 2 p. m. Cordial invitation extended to the public. Committee

Miss Elizabeth Matheny has entered as a student of the Harrisonburg State Normal. She was accompanied to the Rockingham capital by her father, W. E. Matheny.

W. A. Theide, of Durbin, came to Monterey Sunday, and on his return in the afternoon was accompanied by H. M. Slaven who spent the night in the city on the Greenbird.

Morton Probst, Emory Rexrode, Pete White and Orion Wagner went on a logging expedition last week. They were on the Bath end of the Allegheny, spending several days and camping in the mountain, wherever ever taken by night. They "bagged" 12 to 15 pounds of song and three rattlers.

SUGAR—One to 100 lbs.—see us, we can save money for the cash. Highland Mer. Company

Mr. and Mrs. Sommers Hevener, of Newark, N. J., who have been visiting the former's old home at Hightown, were joined last week by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Chittenden and son, Clinton, of Danbury, Conn., and Mr. Verne Drew, of Newark. They all returned to Newark Monday and were accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Hevener and Miss Gertrude Hall, who will spend some time in New Jersey.

I have decided to sell about 350 volumes of fiction out of my library and am advertising same elsewhere in this issue of the Recorder. Those wishing to purchase may see them at my house or pick the ones they want at any time. These books are all in good shape and are by well known authors. In order to get the books you want you had best come at once and make your purchases. J. C. MATHENY

Mrs. S. E. Terry and son Frank made a trip to Dayton latter part of last week. It is said that Mrs. Terry has bought property in Dayton where she will reside, at least temporarily. In recalling the fact that Mrs. Terry tried to buy a home in Monterey, the "Hiners" have "food for thought." As a monument in favor of a civic league, these instances speak louder than words.

Prof. A. P. Warwick and two daughters, Miss Clara Warwick and Miss Paul Slaven, will this winter have charge of the four-year high school at Sinking Creek in Craig county and left Monday morning to take charge. Mrs. Warwick and children, Lucy Martha, Frank and George Wilson, accompanied them and will spend the winter there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gum, Miss Lucille Gum, James Trimble, and J. A. Whitelaw are taking in the Covington fair this week.

Miss Dolly Ralston, of Washington and friend, Miss Ruth Graham, of Bridgewater, are visiting the former's old home on Crab Run.

Brother McCoy, of the Pendleton Times, ran short of print paper this week and sent a S. O. S. message to the Recorder. Printers have troubles peculiarly their own, and no few of them.

J. M. Colaw met with a painful accident while engaged in fence-building Wednesday, running a splinter of wood into his hand and necessitating the use of a knife to remove it.

Those who have sale advertisements in this issue are Mrs. J. B. Bradshaw, McDowell; C. R. Gum, F. M. Trimble, Monterey; Thomas M. Jones, Doe Hill.

Also J. C. Matheny, of Monterey.

Watch the slip on your paper and if you are behind, kindly let us have what is due. No better time to remit than now.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. J. C. Matheny next Wednesday the 29th, at 2:30 p. m. A full attendance is urged.

Miss Lena Seybert, assistant principal of the M. H. S., has been prevented from taking up her work by sickness in the family. Miss Bess Bishop is substituting for her. The sick in the Seybert home are said to be improving.

The treasurer of each branch line entering the Monterey Switch board who has not collected and turned in the 1920 switch board assessment will please do so at once.

W. N. BIRD, Gen. Mgr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hicklin, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Beverage, relatives of Miss Ruby Hicklin, whose remains were brought from Pennsylvania to her old home at New Salem, attended the funeral, which took place last Saturday.

This fruitful year in Highland is calculated to stimulate rivalry along productive lines and some splendid specimens of vegetables and fruits may be placed on exhibition. Here in the Recorder office we have some samples of onions "not to be sneezed at." They were grown by I. L. Beverage and W. E. Gum, one living on South Spruce and the other on East Main. The odds are slightly in favor of Mr. Gum, but all are fine, and were grown from the seed. Call and see them and place on exhibition your prize-winners for the year.

Notice To Teachers
The Highland County Teachers' Association will meet at Monterey, Oct. 1st and 2nd. Every teacher is expected to be present as this is part of the school term. Programs will be sent out later.
G. H. PAYNE, Pres.

Bullpasture Items

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Jno Vance Sept. 18 and left twin girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ralston, of Louisville, Ky., are visiting the former's father, J. M. Ralston.

D. E. Lockridge has been quite ill for a few days, but is better.

G. H. Hicklin's health is somewhat improved.

Miss Lola Hicklin, of Long Island, New York, is spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Hicklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashby, of Weston, W. Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wiseman.

Miss Copeland Blair will resume her studies at Ft. Loudon Seminary, Winchester, Va. this week.

DEATHS
Mrs. Henriette V. Pullin died at her home on the Bullpasture River at 5:30 p. m., Sept. 16, 1920, aged 53 years, 4 months and 4 days.

She was a Miss Oakes and was married to the late Samuel H. Pullin who preceded her to the great beyond 32 years ago.

Mrs. Pullin is survived by two children, a son and daughter, W. R. Pullin, of Meadow Dale community and Mrs. Maria F. Pullin who ministered so tenderly and faithfully to her in her declining years; also three grand-children, and two foster children, E. M. Gladwell, of Niagara, N. Y., and Willie Samples, of Doe Hill, Va.

She was a woman of striking personality—strong mental power and great kindness of heart. She worked faithfully during the World War in Red Cross work both for the soldiers and refugees. She was member of the Methodist church and a faithful attendant at its services until the infirmities of old age deprived her of that pleasure.

The Pullin home was noted for its hospitality. Its doors were always open to all classes, the poor and needy as well as those blessed with plenty. The remains of Miss Ruby Hicklin, who died at Easton, Pa., were interred in the Pullin cemetery Saturday morning, Sept. 18. She was a daughter of Mrs. S. S. Hicklin and the late E. A. Hicklin, and had spent her time since very young womanhood as a nurse at Easton, Pa. She is remembered here as a beautiful and lovable young lady.

First to Register

Mrs. Kenny Puffenberger, a farmer's wife of Forks of Waters, enjoys the distinction of being the first Highland woman to register. Since then several others have qualified, the exact number not known to us, but less than a dozen. More interest in the new privilege is looked for during the remaining period allowed them for registration.

Married

Mr. Ira Rexrode and Miss Maggie Rexrode, both of the Monterey community left town Sunday morning without making public their plans and returned Tuesday man and wife, the ceremony having been performed on the previous day by a Cumberland (Md.) minister.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. T. J. Rexrode and the groom a son of the late Oscar Rexrode, and both are well-known young people of the Monterey community.
